

Part of the

Everyone is part of the body of Christ. Across the Conference, adults with a developmental disability want to be included both at church and in their communities. Heart Havens empowers them to do that by providing a safe and nurturing environment where people with a developmental disability are able to live life to the fullest with as much independence as possible.

Part of the

Everyone is part of the body of Christ. Across the Conference, adults with a developmental disability want to be included both at church and in their communities. Heart Havens empowers them to do that by providing a safe and nurturing environment where people with a developmental disability are able to live life to the fullest with as much independence as possible.